

Becoming America: The Constitutional Convention of 1787

A unique blend of music, history and political thought

“America is a perfect idea. The United States is a work in progress.”

September 22, 2022

6:30 – 8:00 p.m.

Richard Nixon Presidential Library and Museum
18001 Yorba Linda Blvd., Yorba Linda

Free - Open to the Public

To preview a new, seventeen-part online series on the Constitutional Convention of 1787, featuring selections from the new musical “Convention: The Birth of America” and excerpts from leading scholars and experts in American history and Constitutional studies

Series Moderators

Dr. Jo Ellen Chatham - “The Professor”
The Honorable Judge Jim Gray (Ret.) - “The Judge”
The Honorable Bijan Kian - “The American”

Online rollout schedule and list of episode topics and speakers will be available at the event.
Each attendee will receive a free pocket-size Constitution of the United States.

Sponsored by The Center for Civics Education
Concordia University Irvine